Michael Cantor Elected to the Fellows of the American Bar Foundation

Hartford, Conn.—Michael A. Cantor, co-managing partner of Cantor Colburn LLP, a leading national firm specializing in intellectual property law, was elected by the American Bar Foundation (ABF) to The Fellows of the American Bar Foundation on May 5, 2013.

This honor is a “recognition of exemplary dedication to the profession and service to society, and commitment to the work of the ABF and ideals and objectives of the American Bar Association.” The Fellows role in the Foundation is to help the ABF reach its mission, to advance justice through research, financially and through support of its research program.

About Cantor Colburn LLP

Cantor Colburn is one of the largest full service intellectual property law firms in the country, with growing offices in Hartford, Washington, D.C., Atlanta, Houston, and Detroit. In recent rankings, Cantor Colburn is #7 in the country for issued U.S. Patents and #24 for registered U.S. Trademarks. As well, the firm has extensive practice in other intellectual property areas, such as validity and infringement opinions, reexaminations, interferences, licensing, due diligence regarding acquisitions and divestitures, and technology transfer agreements. Cantor Colburn’s litigation team has extensive and diverse experience in intellectual property, commercial and business litigation cases, and has represented plaintiffs, defendants, intellectual property owners, as well as accused infringers, in litigation. The firm’s clients are among the leading companies in the country and around the world, including Fortune 100 companies, privately-held companies, select high tech start-ups, and universities.
