Cantor Colburn Receives Dual Honors:
Recognized as a Go-To Law Firm for Leading Technology Companies and Ranked Among Top 5% of Patent Firms Nationally

Hartford, CT – Cantor Colburn LLP, a national, full service intellectual property firm of 90+ attorneys and patent professionals, has been recognized as a Go-To Law Firm® for Leading Technology Companies by American Lawyer Media (ALM) and has been ranked the #19 Top Patent Firm, out of more than 350, in the US by Intellectual Property Today magazine. The dual honors signal the consistent growth and strength of Cantor Colburn's practice.

The Go-To Law Firms® for Leading Technology Companies list was compiled by asking general counsel at leading technology companies which outside law firms they hire. The full list will be printed by ALM in its new guide, In-House Law Departments at the Leading Technology Companies.

The Top Patent Firms list is a ranking of the number of utility patents issued in 2007 for which a firm is listed as legal representative. The ranking of 352 law firms appears in the March 2008 issue of Intellectual Property Today.

“These two honors are very important: being among the Go-To Law Firms means that we are providing the kinds of services that innovative companies need to compete in the new millennium, and being ranked in the top 5% for patent activity shows that we have the depth and expertise to provide patent services to the companies that are leading the world in technological innovation.”

Record Expansion

In 2007, Cantor Colburn took on record expansion. The firm moved its Atlanta office to a larger space to accommodate expansion; opened a new office in Washington, D.C., minutes from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office; and moved its 150 Connecticut employees to newly remodeled offices in a landmark downtown Hartford office tower. Growth came from new clients, like Cannondale Bicycle Corporation, MySpace.com, Mattel, Georgia Pacific, and Service Master. There was also significant new work from existing clients like IBM, BIC Corporation, SABIC Innovative Plastics, (formerly GE Plastics), and Samsung, among others. Cantor Colburn has continued this growth trend into 2008 with new clients and the addition of new attorneys and patent agents.
