Cantor Colburn Attorney Daniel Bruso Appointed to the Foundation Board of the Capital Community College

Daniel E. Bruso, a litigation attorney with Cantor Colburn LLP in Hartford, CT, has been appointed to the Foundation Board of the Capital Community College, also in Hartford, for a three-year term. The mission of the Foundation Board is to increase community support for Capital Community College and advise college leadership on current and emerging programs of study.

“Providing high quality educational opportunities for Hartford’s young people is vital to the long term health and success of our region,” said Mr. Bruso. “It’s an honor to support Capital Community College in engaging the community in this effort.”

Mr. Bruso has been an attorney for more than twelve years, appearing before Federal, Bankruptcy and State Courts. He concentrates his practice on intellectual property and commercial litigation, as well as mediation and arbitration proceedings; opposition and cancellation proceedings before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board; and transactional law. Mr. Bruso is an adjunct professor at Western New England College School of Law, teaching Trademark and Unfair Competition Law, and previously taught Moot Court at the University of Connecticut School of Law. Mr. Bruso received an Honorable Discharge from the United States Army. He is a graduate of Worcester Polytechnic Institute and Western New England College School of Law.

The Foundation, established in 1985, serves the college by establishing scholarship opportunities and identifying resources that promote student success.
