Cantor Colburn LLP Sponsors Grand Opening of Connecticut Science Center

Hartford, CT-- Cantor Colburn LLP, Intellectual Property Attorneys, is pleased to announce that the firm is a grand opening sponsor of the Connecticut Science Center. The Center's grand opening celebration is May 30. The Center is open to the general public in June 2009.

"We believe the Center will be a vital new resource to the state, region and country at a critical time," said Cantor Colburn Co-Managing Partner Michael A. Cantor. "The Center will take science out of the textbook and bring it to life in its exhibit halls and outreach programs."

"We are excited to support innovation and learning, which will nurture and inspire the next generation of researchers, discoverers and inventors, and foster better informed citizens," said Philmore H. Colburn II, Co-Managing Partner. "Science literacy is essential to innovation, and innovation is essential to a thriving economy."
