Cantor Colburn Sponsors the 2009 Pan-Massachusetts Challenge August 1 & 2

Hartford, Conn.— Cantor Colburn LLP, intellectual property attorneys, are among the sponsors of the 2009 Pan-Massachusetts Challenge, to take place on August 1 & 2, 2009. Known as the Pan-Mass Challenge, the annual bike-a-thon-- the first such event in the nation-- gathers more than 5,200 bicyclists, supported by 3,000 volunteers, who will bike through 46 towns in Massachusetts. The event raises money for cancer research and treatment at the Dana Farber Cancer Institute through its Jimmy Fund.

Bill Cass, a partner and co-chair of the litigation practice at Cantor Colburn, is one of the riders.

"I'm honored to participate in this exciting and important event, in which riders, volunteers and sponsors offer so much of themselves," said Mr. Cass.

Since its founding in 1980, the Pan-Mass Challenge has raised $240 million. This year, the athletic fundraising event hopes to raise $30 million.
