Five Cantor Colburn LLP Trademark Attorneys Serve on Diverse Range of Committees for the International Trademark Association in 2010-2011

Hartford, Conn.-- The International Trademark Association (INTA) has announced committee assignments for the 2010-2011 committee term. Five Cantor Colburn LLP trademark attorneys have committee assignments:

- Curtis Krechevsky, Partner and Trademark & Copyright Department Chair, has been appointed to the North America Subcommittee of the Non-Traditional Marks Committee (NTM) and the North America Subcommittee of the INTA Non-Traditional Marks Committee (NTM);
- P. Jay Hines, Partner, has been appointed to the Limits on Trademark Rights Subcommittee of the INTA Emerging Issues Committee;
- Elizabeth Ann "Betty" Morgan, Partner and Chair of the Litigation Practice in the Atlanta office, has been appointed to the Courts & Tribunals Subcommittee of the INTA Enforcement Committee and the Enforcement Committee;
- Robyn Lederman, Senior Trademark Counsel, has been appointed to the North America Subcommittee of the INTA Famous & Well-Known Marks Committee; and
- Michelle Ciotola, Associate, has been appointed to the Academic Committee.

"Our attorneys greatly value their INTA committee participation, because within INTA and the committee structure a wide variety of important trademark-related subjects are addressed by the world's leading practitioners," said Mr. Krechevsky. "We are grateful for the opportunity to contribute to the effectiveness of the Association through our committee work."
