Delphi Division Counsel Joins Detroit Office of Cantor Colburn LLP

Detroit, Mich.-- Former Delphi Corporation Division IP Counsel Paul L. Marshall has joined Cantor Colburn's Detroit office as a partner, where he will focus on intellectual property transactions and patent portfolio development.

"Paul has been a valued contributor at Delphi on a number of important endeavors for the company," said Thomas N. Twomey, Assistant General Counsel, Intellectual Property, at Delphi Holdings LLP. "We look forward to working with him in his new role at Cantor Colburn."

Mr. Marshall brings extensive IP experience in licensing and M&A transactions, as well as patent experience in a wide variety of technologies, including solid oxide fuel cells, engine management systems, fuel injection, valve train, fuel delivery systems, emission control, catalyst technologies, braking systems, polymer chemistry, coatings, and imaging technology.

"We are excited that Paul is joining Cantor Colburn," said Philmore H. Colburn II. "His experience with IP transfer and licensing issues will be a major asset to the Detroit team and to the firm."

As an attorney at Delphi Corporation, Mr. Marshall was Division IP Counsel, and lead IP counsel for the Powertrain Systems Division, a multibillion dollar unit. At Delphi, Mr. Marshall managed both domestic and international IP portfolios and led the IP portfolio development efforts in a wide range of technologies, encompassing automotive powertrain technologies and medical devices. Mr. Marshall has supported numerous acquisitions and divestitures and has significant experience in M&A activities, negotiating and drafting technology transfer agreements and other IP agreements.

Prior to his work at Delphi, Mr. Marshall was Assistant General Counsel at Honeywell International Inc., Managing Counsel at BASF Corporation, and an attorney at Eastman Kodak Company. He received his J.D. with honors from The George Washington University Law School, Washington, D.C. Mr. Marshall's MBA with honors is from William E. Simon Graduate School of Business Administration and his BSE in Chemical Engineering magna cum laude is from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. Mr. Marshall is admitted to the bar in the states of Michigan and New York and to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.
