

Cantor Colburn Honors Students at the Capital Community College Foundation Changing Lives Celebration

Hartford, Conn.-- Cantor Colburn was a donor to the Capital Community College Foundation Changing Lives Celebration on November 4, 2009 at their downtown Hartford location. The Changing Lives Celebration event is the signature event of the Foundation, and focuses on the success of students and the importance of getting a college education for careers in the 21st century. The Foundation, established in 1985, serves the college by establishing scholarship opportunities and identifying resources that promote student success.

Daniel E. Brusco, a litigation associate at Cantor Colburn LLP, is a member of the Foundation's board of directors.

"This semester hundreds of Capital students became the first members of their families to attend college," said Mr. Brusco, "and it's an honor and a pleasure to celebrate their hard work and achievements."
