Cantor Colburn LLP Trademark Attorney George Pelletier Selected for Program Committee for the International Trademark Association

Hartford, Conn.-- The International Trademark Association (INTA) has selected Cantor Colburn trademark attorney George A. Pelletier, Jr. to serve as a member of the Program Committee, U.S. Roundtable Project Team, through 2011.

Mr. Pelletier has been a member of INTA for ten years, and has been an active contributor and participant during that time. The Trademark Insider has ranked Mr. Pelletier in the Top 50 U.S. Trademark Attorneys for five consecutive years. His practice emphasizes trademarks, copyrights, unfair competition and internet law issues, including domain names, domain name infringement, cyber squatting, and licensing.

"I am honored to have been chosen to work on this Committee," said Mr. Pelletier. "The Roundtable Project Team brings together local practitioners together to discuss recent decisions and current trends in trademark law, and consequently is a valuable resource for attorneys in this field."

INTA is a not-for-profit membership association of more than 5,900 trademark owners and professionals, from more than 190 countries, dedicated to the support and advancement of trademarks and related intellectual property.
