

Connecticut Law Tribune, August 25, 2009, Movers & Shakers:

Drexler

Daniel F. Drexler, a partner at Cantor Colburn LLP in Hartford, has been appointed president of the Connecticut Intellectual Property Law Association for a one-year term. Drexler has been a patent attorney for 10 years. He concentrates his practice on patent preparation and procurement, strategic intellectual property (IP) portfolio development, due diligence in IP acquisitions, and client counseling and risk assessment in the areas of patent noninfringement, invalidity and right-to-practice.