Legal 500 U.S. 2013 Awards Cantor Colburn LLP as a Leading Firm

Cantor Colburn LLP has been recommended as a “Leading Firm” by the Legal 500 United States 2013 in Intellectual Property (IP) for patent prosecution: utility and design patents. This will be the firm’s fourth consecutive year of being recognized for this highly selective honor.

“The Legal 500 is an independent guide, in its 26th year, and firms and individuals are recommended purely on merit. The Legal 500 United States is the only guide to recommend firms on a national basis, and in 2013, has recommended just 311 firms. It is also the only guide to truly reflect the needs of corporate counsel by focusing on the strength in depth of the teams (practice and associates) rather than simply list individual partners.”

Six of the firm’s attorneys have been recommended in the Legal 500 United States 2013’s editorial. Cantor Colburn’s co-managing partners, Michael A. Cantor and Philmore H. Colburn were individually recognized, as were Hartford-based partners David Arnold, David A. Fox, and Keith J. Murphy, and Washington, D.C.-based partner Daniel F. Drexler.

Below is the Legal 500 U.S. review of Cantor Colburn on their website:

Connecticut-based IP boutique Cantor Colburn LLP has a solid reputation in the market - it provides ‘excellent level of service, and is excellent value for money’. Led by well-respected duo Michael Cantor and Philmore Colburn, the firm has 34 partners spread across five offices. The firm’s ‘responsive and knowledgeable’ patent prosecution practice is praised for its technical depth and its ‘top-notch work’. Key partners include David Fox, Keith Murphy, David Arnold, all of whom are based in Hartford, and Daniel Drexler in Washington DC. The group’s impressive client base spans the US, Europe, Japan and Korea and includes Fortune 100 companies and some of the largest corporations in the world. Among the list are General Electric, Samsung, General Motors, IBM, Research in Motion and Raytheon. (<http://www.legal500.com/firms/52310/53495>)
