Intellectual Property Attorneys

Cantor Colburn LLP welcomed Jasvin Tuteja, a 17 year old rising senior at The Walker High School, to the firm's Atlanta office for a summer 2013 internship. Tuteja worked at Cantor Colburn through the Gate City Bar Association's Justice Robert Benham Law Camp program hosted by the Georgia State University College of Law. The Law Camp is designed to expose minority high school students, rising into the 10th, 11th, and 12th grade in the Atlanta area, to the field of law. This three week program gives eligible students, who are interested in pursuing a career in law, an opportunity to be exposed to practicing minority lawyers and judges and to tour various legal institutions like the state and superior courts, the Georgia Supreme Court, and Georgia Court of Appeals.

Tuteja is interested in a career in law and national security. At Cantor Colburn, he assisted Peter Hagerty, Jeffrey Waters, Stacy Stewart and Duane Minley with patent and trademark matters.
