Leah Reimer Recognized as a Top 250 Women in IP 2016

Hartford, Connecticut—Cantor Colburn LLP is pleased to announce that Leah Reimer, Ph.D. has been named in Managing Intellectual Property's Top 250 Women in IP for 2016. Managing Intellectual Property's research process comprises interviews and surveys and only a small subset of this group is selected for the Top 250 recognition.

Dr. Reimer is the Co-Chair of Cantor Colburn's Chemical, Materials, and Life Sciences Department. She provides Fortune 50 and other technology-based companies with sophisticated, creative solutions to complex legal and technical issues. Her counsel is fully supported by the knowledge and experience gained through her PhD from Stanford University in organic chemistry, her work as a research chemist at Eli Lilly and DowElanco, and her success as an IP attorney. Dr. Reimer's patent prosecution practice is focused primarily on polymer and materials science; pharmaceuticals and pharmaceutical formulation; agricultural chemicals and their formulation; nanotechnology; and metallurgy and ceramics. She teaches Patent Law at her alma mater, the University of Connecticut School of Law, and is a frequent speaker on emerging areas of patent law. Her honors include being a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation, being a Finalist for Women of Innovation, being designated a Woman of the Law High Achiever by the Connecticut Law Tribune twice, and being recognized by Managing Intellectual Property's IP Stars in 2013-2016.

About Cantor Colburn LLP

Cantor Colburn was recently ranked the fastest growing U.S. patent firm over the last ten years ("Rainmaker Firms," Juristat, February 4, 2016). And in 2015, Cantor Colburn was #3 for design patents, #7 for utility patents, and #7 for trademarks in rankings of U.S. patent and trademark firms by the number of patents and trademarks obtained for clients each year ("2015 Toteboards Published," Ant-like Persistence, February 28, 2016). No other law firm ranks higher in all three categories.
