Douglas S. Weinstein Joins Cantor Colburn's Atlanta Office

Douglas S. Weinstein

Atlanta – Cantor Colburn LLP is proud to announce the hiring of Douglas S. Weinstein in the firm's Atlanta office. Mr. Weinstein is a patent attorney, working in both prosecution and litigation, with significant experience in Taiwan, where he served as Partner and Taiwan IP Coordinator for four years for a major U.S. intellectual property (IP) firm.

"Doug brings a wealth of experience in all areas of IP – including litigation in federal court and at the ITC, complex licensing negotiations, while continuing to handle sophisticated electrical preparation and prosecution in the U.S., Taiwan, and around the world," said Philmore H. Colburn II, Co-Managing Partner of Cantor Colburn.

Mr. Weinstein practices across a broad range of intellectual property law and many technical areas, including: electronics, semiconductors, telecommunications, software, medical devices, and mechanical arts. He drafts patent applications and performs patent prosecution for a variety of small, medium, and large clients. This includes U.S. prosecution and coordination of world-wide prosecution. He has lead complex licensing negotiations between large and medium-sized companies and licensors/licensees. Mr. Weinstein has also frequently acted as an outside IP counsel for small to medium-size enterprises, assisting them with a wide-range of intellectual property and other issues that arise in their businesses. He provides strategic intellectual property planning services to clients of all sizes to better protect, mine, and exploit their intellectual property. Mr. Weinstein has litigated in many Federal district courts and Delaware Chancery Court. He assists clients with challenges faced by third-party intellectual property, including assistance with design-around efforts, as well as rendering infringement and validity opinions on third-party patents. Mr. Weinstein also has experience on IP due diligence in the M&A context. He has been a frequent speaker at legal, industry, and business meetings, and drafter of multiple articles. Mr. Weinstein has a BSEE from Vanderbilt University, an MBA from the University of Alabama, a master's in intellectual property law and J.D., both from the University of New Hampshire, and both in the top 10% of his class. He is admitted to practice before the USPTO and to several courts, including the state bar of Georgia.
