

Hartford Business Journal

Movers & Shakers

01/31/11

Cantor Colburn LLP, the Hartford-based intellectual property law firm, has elected one new partner and seven new counsels. J. Michael Buchanan, a patent practitioner for 11 years, joins the partnership. He concentrates his practice on chemical patent preparation, prosecution, and opinions. He is based in the firm's Hartford office. Named counsels in Hartford are Anne Davis Barry, who has been practicing for 10 years and concentrates on the preparation and prosecution of patents in the computer arts; Marisa J. Dubuc, who has more than 10 years' experience and concentrates on patent applications; Leslie-Anne Maxwell, who has been practicing law for five years and concentrates on pharmaceutical patent law; George A. Pelletier Jr., who has been practicing for 12 years and concentrates on trademark and copyright law; and Roberta L. Pelletier, who has been practicing for eight years and concentrates on patent drafting and prosecution. Also named counsels are David E. Rodrigues, in the Houston office, and Mary E. Golota in the Detroit office. Cantor Colburn is one of the largest intellectual property specialty law firms in the U.S. and has offices in Hartford, Washington, D.C., Atlanta, Houston, and Detroit.