Partner Bill Cass and co-author Thomas Kurfess wrote "Rethinking Additive Manufacturing and Intellectual Property Protection," published in the September-October 2014 issue of Research-Technology Management. Cass co-chairs the firm’s Additive Manufacturing Practice Group and is a frequent speaker on the topic. Kurfess is Professor and HUSCO/Ramirez Distinguished Chair in Fluid Power and Motion Control at Georgia Tech’s School of Mechanical Engineering. Research-Technology Management, published since 1958, is the bi-monthly journal of the Industrial Research Institute. It contains peer-reviewed articles covering the entire spectrum of technological innovation, from research and development through product development to marketing. RTM is a leading source of knowledge and best practices on innovation management for leaders of research, development, and engineering worldwide.
